Dear Gayatri Singh

I would like to welcome Gayatri Singh to our open-source developers' community. We are excited and feeling blessed to have you here as an Open-Source Developer (Full Stack) Intern at Curious Developers Community (Curious Business Solution Pvt. Ltd.) for a Closed-Source Product Inspiration App, and we are very happy to work with you in a team. I trust that this letter finds you both excited about your new opportunities to play a respective role in our community.

As mentioned during the meeting, while your new position reports to us, I would like to welcome you to the respective roles that you choose as Full Stack Developer on behalf of all the community members. Each of us will play a role in ensuring your successful integration and development into the department.

As previously discussed during a meeting or orientation session, We should abide by the rules and regulations of the organization, so we keep community or company source codes or assets confidential. "SECURITY IS NOT AN OPTION; WE NEED TO BE PART OF IT."

Warm Regards,

Nandan G N
